At the top, the logo "ancestry.com" is visible on the left, and user navigation links like "Hi schernoff1", "Sign Out", "Messages", "My Account", "Help", "To-Dos", and "Quick Links" are on the right. A main navigation bar includes "Home", "Family Trees", "Search", "Collaborate", "Learning Center", "DNA", "Publish", "Shop", "Hire an Expert", and "Gift Memberships".

The central "Search" section contains several input fields: "First & Middle Name(s)", "Last Name", "Name a place your ancestor might have lived", and "Estimated birth year" with a "Calculate it" button. Below these are filters for "Any Event" (with a dropdown and "Year" and "Location" fields) and "Family Member" (with a "Choose..." dropdown and "First Name" and "Last Name" fields). A "Search" button and links for "Show Advanced", "Clear Form", and "Help" are at the bottom of the search area.

On the right side, there are three vertical panels: "Recently viewed collections" (listing "Missouri Marriage Records, 1805-2002", "1890 United States Federal Census Fragment", and "Belarus: Minsk City Homeowners Lists, 1889 and 1911"), "Special Collections" (with a "Card Catalog" link), and "Historical Records" (with sub-sections for "Birth, Marriage & Death", "Census & Voter Lists", "Immigration & Travel", "Military", and "Schools, Directories & Church Histories").

At the bottom left, the "Recent Searches" section shows "(no name indicated)", "nesselroth*", "gindenson*", and "Avraham Jacob (Roman) Nesselroth". Below that is the "Explore by Location" section, which includes tabs for "USA", "UK & Ireland", "Europe", "Canada", and "Australia & NZ". A map of the United States is shown with state abbreviations, and a list of "Recent additions include:" with links to "Social Security Death Index - Updated", "Alabama Civil War Muster Rolls, 1861-1865", and "U.S. Census Non-Resident Schedules".

JewishGen Family Finder (JGFF):

The JewishGen Family Finder (JGFF) is a compilation of surnames and towns currently being researched by over 92,000 Jewish genealogists worldwide. It contains over 480,000 entries: 119,000 ancestral surnames and 17,000 town names, and is indexed and cross-referenced by both surname and town name. The JGFF was originally created in 1982, and is maintained by JewishGen.

Researchers should check the JGFF for genealogists with similar research interests, and can then contact them for an exchange of information.

All genealogists are encouraged to participate in the JGFF. To add your own ancestral surnames and towns to the JGFF, click on the "Enter" button above.

Family Tree of the Jewish People

The Family Tree of the Jewish People (FTJP) is a project to centralize the collection of Jewish family trees, to provide a powerful resource to connect individuals researching the same Jewish family branches, to re-connect their families, and to increase interest in Jewish genealogy.

NEW in 2010: JewishGen is launching a new initiative to grow the Family Tree of the Jewish People, and invites you to participate. We have partnered with MyHeritage.com to provide a special facility for Jewish genealogists to create their family tree on MyHeritage.com, or import their GEDCOM there, and automatically share the tree with JewishGen's Family Tree of the Jewish People. This partnership provides Jewish genealogists with a highly capable family tree system supporting English, Hebrew and 34 additional languages, with photos, Smart Matches and a host of additional features, with the added benefit of synchronization with JewishGen. By participating, you will help grow the Family Tree of the Jewish People, while keeping its contents constantly up-to-date, and you may be rewarded by being discovered and contacted by Jewish genealogists who can add to your family tree. Learn more here.

By submitting your GEDCOM file to this program, you become an integral part of this effort and you acknowledge and agree to the following:

The GEDCOM you are submitting represents your personal research efforts into your own family connections. If your submission includes data that is the work of another person you must have their permission to put it on line.

You will not submit any information that infringes on the copyright of others, nor is defamatory or profane in any way.

Your submission does not entitle you to any compensation, monetary or other.

You will respond in a timely fashion to any researcher who makes contact with you through the third party e-mail system maintained by JewishGen.

Because of the concerns for privacy of living persons, any data displayed on the Internet will not contain the date and place of birth for any person for whom a death date is not included, nor will source notes be displayed.

JewishGen copyrights only the compilation of GEDCOMs as the database. This does not limit you from publishing, selling, giving or otherwise distributing your GEDCOM for commercial or non-commercial purposes.

By searching the JewishGen version of the Family Tree of the Jewish People, you agree to the following:

While you have been granted full and unlimited search rights to GEDCOM files in this online version, it is for your personal research interests only. Any use of this database for commercial purposes is prohibited.

You will hold JewishGen, Inc. harmless from any wrongdoing or inaccuracies in the compiled data. Any complaints regarding the content of any data contained in this online version should be directed to the submitter who is the source of the data.

JewishGen's programs are free and provided as a public service worldwide to any one with an interest in their Jewish ancestry. Please consider making a gift today to JewishGen so that this and all programs we provide will grow and continue to flourish. Your gift makes it all happen! <http://www.jewishgen.org/JewishGen-erosity>.
